

Vermont Agency of Education COVID-19 Briefs

Pertinent to Health and Physical Educators

- Continuity of Learning Plan Exemplars (5/14)
- Leveraging Summer 2020 Programs: Key considerations in planning for Continuity of Learning (5/6)
- Supporting the Senior Class of 2020: Further considerations during Remote Learning (5/6)
- Grading and Reporting: Guiding Considerations in Remote Learning Environments (5/6)
- Grading and Reporting: Practical Strategies from the Field During Remote Learning (5/6)
- Continuity of Learning: Identifying Critical Proficiencies (4/29)
- Educator Resilience: Tips on Self-care in the time of COVID-19 (4/23)
- Assessment in Remote Learning Environments: Recommended Practices (4/9)
- Instruction in a Remote Learning Environment: Universal Principles and recommended practice (4/8)
- Continuity of Learning: Guidelines for Families and Guardians of PreK-5 Students (4/8)
- Continuity of Learning: Guidelines for 6-12 Families and Guardians (4/8/)
- Leveraging Student Support Teams to Support Continuity of Learning (4/7)

Licensing COVID-19 Messages

- Licensing COVID-19 FAQ (3/24/20, updated 5/8/20)
<https://education.vermont.gov/documents/educator-licensing-covid19-faqs>
- Student Teaching/EPP COVID-19 FAQ
<https://education.vermont.gov/documents/educator-quality-covid19-student-teaching-faq>

Next Steps:

The Agency of Education (AOE) is currently researching safe and healthy practices for reopening schools to develop guidance for Vermont schools. We encourage educators to wait for guidance to be published before planning for the fall. To stay informed, the Agency encourages all educators to read the Weekly Field Memo and visit the Continuity of Learning webpage on a regular basis.